- Finding content on a specific topic or person 1
- Exploring content relating to general topics 3
- Finding resources for facilitating training workshops 5
- Finding legislation relating to women’s rights 6
- Finding documentaries on women’s rights and videos of interviews with leading women’s rights advocates 7

WLP’s efforts to improve the Learning Center’s searchability and to increase its content are ongoing.

Here are some helpful tips to help you get the most out of the Learning Center.

There are two ways to search WLP’s Learning Center and website. The first is the search box at the top of the webpage; the second is the search filters in the Learning Center.

Finding content on a specific topic or person

The search box is the easiest way to find content if you already know what topic or person you wish to research.

- a. Identify the search box. The search box is indicated by the symbol of a magnifying glass at the very top of the webpage.

Tips for Searching the Learning Center

- b. Click on the magnifying glass to bring up the search box. Type your search term into the search box, for example “honor crimes” or “Mary Robinson.” When searching for a topic or person that is more than one word, narrow your results by putting the issue or name in quotation marks.

- c. Refine your search further from the search results page. Tick the boxes to filter by content type. You will be presented with the following options: Resources (items in our Learning Center), Topics, Person, Partners, Blogs, Press releases, Events, Countries, Tags, Landing pages, and Basic pages.

RESOURCE

Crimes of Honour (partial) (video)

Filmed in Jordan and on the West Bank, Crimes of Honour documents the terrible reality of femicide - the killing of sisters or daughters suspected of losing their virginity, for having refused an arranged marriage or having left a husband.

- d. Refine your search by type of content and click on the SEARCH button to refresh the search. The most frequently used content types are Resources, Topics, Person, Blogs, and Events.

Exploring content relating to general topics

The Learning Center filters are helpful in browsing the content available relating to WLP's programs, campaigns, and publications. The filters can narrow your search by topic or country if you do not have a specific person, issue, or event in mind.

- Identify the white LEARNING CENTER button in the top right-hand corner of the homepage.
- Click on the LEARNING CENTER button; you will be redirected to the “Browse the Learning Center” page.
- Scroll down the page until you reach the filters. The filters are All Resource Collections, All Languages, All Countries, and All Topics.

Browse the Learning Center

Our Learning Center is growing. We are continuously adding to and refining the archives. Check in with us from time to time to see what is new. Here are some helpful links:

The screenshot shows the 'Browse the Learning Center' interface. At the top, there are four filter menus: 'All Resource Collections', 'All Languages', 'All Countries', and 'All Topics', each with a downward arrow. To the right of these filters is a teal 'APPLY' button and the text 'Showing 564 results'. Below the filters, two search results are displayed. The first result is titled '2020 Vision Conference (brochure)' and includes a thumbnail image of the brochure. The second result is titled '2020 Vision Conference Key note: Mary Robinson on international agreements and women's leadership (video)' and includes a thumbnail image of the video. Both results have 'Download' and 'Add' buttons.
